

Chilean Pirate Party choose a woman as captain

Last weekend the Pirate Party of Chile celebrated his PirtaraCon 2020. As pandemic times demands, each pirate across that sea voted safe in home. Finally the rudder was for Paula Muñoz, now president of this South American ship.

In a friendly context, with tómbola and ships in camera, the pirates had during all the last week deliberating about civil and digital rights, and the future themselves.

The final list puts to Paula Muñoz as President, Sebastián Godoy as secretary and Mauricio Vargas as treasurer, during two years.

The Pirate Party emerges from the self-convened activism in fields like human rights, Democracy, technologies, digital rights, culture and environment. Pirates has an unique sense of gratitude for the knowledge who makes the humanity a better place to live, with integrity and consciousness.

The Pirate Party of Chile is a member of the Pirate Parties International, with 4 euro parliamentarians.

Partido Pirata de Chile

